TRADE SHOW

ADS Shows is gearing up to deliver another spectacular experience at Abbotsford's Tradex Centre, with expanded reach and renewed momentum. Building on the success of 2024, the upcoming event is poised for significant growth in both exhibitor participation and attendee engagement.

Spanning 120,000 sq. ft. and featuring over 200 exhibitors, the APNA Truck Show brings together national and international truck brands, cutting-edge technologies, and valuable career opportunities—all under one roof. On both days, industry professionals will be available to answer all your questions, so that your company can excel. The APNA Truck Show serves as a powerful platform for industry professionals to connect, explore innovations, and help shape the future of transportation.

Join us as we celebrate growth, innovation, and community at the heart of Western Canada's trucking industry.

Educational Seminars

This year, with the BC Trucking Association endorsing the 2026 APNA Truck Show, seminars and informative one-on-one "talks" will focus on essential topics in the transportation sector—including business strategy, safety standards, health and wellness, and emerging industry challenges. These sessions provide valuable insights for professionals looking to stay current, informed, and prepared for what's ahead. Make the most of your time at the show by learning, participating, and leading.

Build Your Team

The 2026 APNA Truck Show provides a prime opportunity to meet, interview, and recruit qualified drivers and owner-operators—all in one place. With thousands of attendees expected, this high-traffic zone will be a central hub for workforce engagement and hiring. Don't miss your chance to strengthen your team and grow your company at Western Canada's leading transportation event.

Show & Shine

A signature highlight of the APNA Truck Show, the Show & Shine showcases the pride, dedication, and craftsmanship of truck owners from across North America. This stunning display brings together a community built on passion, hard work, and a shared love for exceptional trucks, built and customized by their owners.

Entertainment

No APNA Truck Show is complete without exciting entertainment! The stage will come alive with music, dance, and live performances. Artists of all ages and backgrounds will help create a lively, family-friendly atmosphere for everyone to enjoy.
